EPIC GAS APPOINTS MONTFORT COMMUNICATIONS

London, 9 May 2019 - Montfort Communications has been appointed as strategic communications adviser by Epic Gas, the leading pressurised LPG shipping company. The Montfort team, led by Nick Bastin and including Rob Bailhache, will work closely with Epic Gas and their existing advisors to enhance their public profile and support their investor relations programmes.

Their vessels serve as a crucial link in the international gas supply chains of leading oil majors and commodity trading houses throughout Southeast Asia, Europe, West Africa and the Americas.

Nick Bastin, Senior Consultant at Montfort Communications, said:

“Over a billion people in the world rely on LPG for their energy needs. Epic Gas is the world’s #1 operator of pressurised LPG carriers and is an integral part of the global LPG supply chain. It plays a critical role in improving living standards by bringing this clean fuel to those who need it in often hard to reach places. We look forward to working with Epic Gas to get this exciting story better appreciated by a variety of stakeholder audiences.”
