

Matthew Jervois joins Montfort as Senior Consultant

8 September 2021

Montfort Communications (“Montfort”) announces that Matthew Jervois has been appointed as a Senior Consultant to work across its Capital Markets, Corporate and Financial Services practices. Matthew has 25 years’ experience of advising UK and multi-national businesses on their communications across financial and corporate audiences. He has a deep understanding of the financial services sector (both public and private markets), capital markets, and crisis and issues communications.

Jervois was previously Head of Financial Services, UK, for Kreab, the global consultancy, and Head of Corporate Communications at Janus Capital, the NYSE-listed global asset manager.

Matthew is a former BBC Economics and Business journalist, an accredited Change Management practitioner and has recently completed the Cambridge University Sustainability Leadership Programme.

Montfort Founding Partner, Nick Miles, said: “Matthew joins at a time of sharply increased momentum at Montfort and brings across the board experience for our growing roster of clients. The business is expanding fast and his skillset is ideally suited to help us fuel that process.”

Matthew Jervois said: “I am very excited to have joined such a strong team of communications specialists in a burgeoning consultancy. I have great respect for Montfort, and look forward to advising clients on a breadth of business issues.”
